This petition coming on for admission this day, the court passed the following:

ORDER

By the instant petition, the petitioner is raising grievance in respect of non-payment of retiral dues under certain heads.

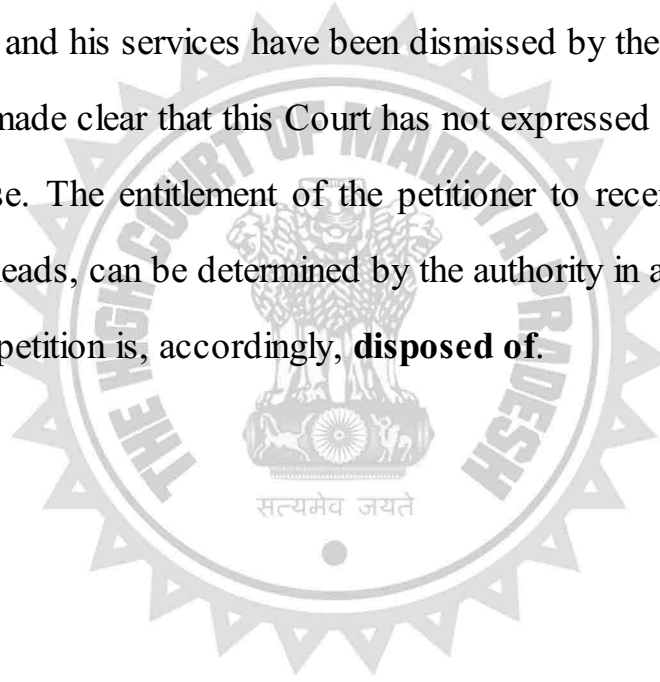

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that because of conviction, petitioner's services have been dismissed by the department, but still he is entitled to get the retiral dues under some of the heads. She submits that the petitioner was not paid said dues and also the subsistence allowance for the period when he remained under suspension.

3. In view of the above, this petition is disposed of directing the petitioner to make a proper representation before the Collector, Khandwa, raising his grievance as to retiral dues, under which heads, should be paid to him, within a period of fifteen days from today. On the same being done, the authority i.e. Collector, Khandwa, shall decide the petitioner's representation within a further period of sixty days therefrom and the petitioner should be paid retiral dues under the heads for which he is legally entitled, even though he has been convicted and his services have been dismissed by the department.

4. It is made clear that this Court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the case. The entitlement of the petitioner to receive the retiral dues under different heads, can be determined by the authority in accordance with law.

5. The petition is, accordingly, disposed of.
